

Brownie Sixer and Second Day

Sunday 4 March 2018

10am - 3.30pm

What	Learning to Lead - Brownie Sixer and Second day
Who for	Brownies who are in a leadership role or will be soon, with their leader
Cost	£3 per brownie plus money for the Girlguiding Leicestershire shop
Where	Bagworth Community Centre, Station Road, Bagworth, Leics. LE67 1HB

The day is especially designed to help sixers and seconds to develop leadership skills, including active listening and giving instruction. They will be taking part in a wide range of activities to give them confidence to lead a meeting and have an active voice in the unit.

- ✓ EVERYONE will need a packed lunch - drinks and snacks will be provided through out the day.
- ✓ Uniform to be worn with soft shoes/trainers.
- ✓ Cheques made payable to 'The Guide Association - Leicestershire'
- ✓ Leaders will need to complete a consent form and ensure a home contact is in place. A risk assessment for the day will be sent nearer the time. Leaders must complete a risk assessment for travel to/from the venue.
- ✓ All brownies will receive a souvenir badge.
- ✓ Ratios 1:8 should be adhered to.
- ✓ The Girlguiding shop selling brownie gifts will be on site during the afternoon activities. If leaders would like orders to be available for collection, please order via the shop and we will bring them for you.
